

PAUL TRAVIS

Paul Travis is Managing Partner of Washington Square Partners, a real estate development and advisory firm in New York City which he founded in 1994. Mr. Travis is also a partner in and project executive for the City Point project, a 1.8 million-square-foot mixed-use development in Downtown Brooklyn. City Point comprises 700,000 square feet of retail space, 200 affordable housing units and 575 market rate housing units. The project is being developed in partnership with Acadia Realty Trust and is the recipient of several design awards.

Since he founded Washington Square Partners, the firm has worked on several major public/private initiatives in the City. In addition, as a partner in Kingsbridge Associates, Mr. Travis also developed the River Plaza Center, which was the first major commercial development in the Bronx in over twenty years. Mr. Travis is a member of the Urban Land Institute and serves on the Board of Directors of the Southampton Arts Center. He is also Chairman of the Planning Commission for the Village of Southampton.
